

Jill Sneesby is well known in PSSA circles for her commitment to PSSA, she is always willing to work for the good of PSSA and Photography.

It doesn't stop there however as she is also very involved in the International scene and is currently the Chair of the Portfolio Distinction Division of the Photographic Society of America and is the FIAP Liaison Officer for PSSA.

She is internationally recognised as a successful lecturer, judge and exhibitor having travelled widely to fulfil these commitments – her judging and lecturing credits include many prestigious photo events in countries as varied as the United Kingdom, Canada, United States of America, United Arab Emirates, Austria, China & India.

Jill has successfully participated on the salon circuit this year and was placed in the Top 10 in PDI and 1st in AV.

Jill is standing for re-election as she is a firm believer of the more you put in the more you get out.
