PSSA DIRECTORY

FOREWORD

This is the second of our PSSA Directories; the last one was so popular and well used, that we were virtually forced to produce another. I hope this one proves as useful as its predecessor.

We must thank Ciba-Geigy (Pty) Ltd (Ilford) for their sponsorship of this booklet.

We have extended the scope of the Directory and hope you will find it easier to locate friends when you are travelling. Don't hesitate to contact PSSA members if you are in a town away from home - ours is a country-wide fellowship and fellow photographers are always welcome.

Please heed the warning at the beginning of this Directory; we wish to protect the privacy of the members and have already taken action against the illegal use of the names and addresses, so if your copy should go out of your hands, please see it is not used for commercial purposes.

The names and addresses of clubs are as up-to-date as club secretaries have allowed them to be. Do call in at clubs if you are away from home - if your standard is high enough, the smaller clubs would love to have you address them, and if you are visiting a larger centre perhaps you could learn something and meet new friends. In any event you would always be an honoured guest wherever you go and if you do make new friends with the help of our Directory let us know, as it would make all of us feel it was more worthwhile - particularly Pam Smith, our Secretary, who has spent so much time compiling and cataloguing the information.

Whenever you use this Directory give a thought to encouraging your friends to become full members of PSSA, for the larger our membership the more we could afford to increase our services to you, this Directory being just one of the many we provide at the moment.

Sincerely, yours photographically,

Les Luckhoff
