CIRCUIT SALON DIRECTOR'S REPORT

This is not the first salon for Cape Photographers but it is the first prints only salon and the first South African national print circuit in this century. The salon consists of the Western Cape-, Garden Route- and Eastern Cape National Print Salons and each has two categories, Open Colour Prints and Open Monochrome Prints.

We were very perturbed when within 14 days before the closing date of 20 April 2024, only a handful of prints had been entered on PhotoVaultOnline. However, we were pleasantly surprised when the salon closed with a total of 348 prints – 194 Colour and 154 Monochrome.

But, disappointingly, 57 entries had to be disqualified due to the entrants not submitting their prints... They had not realised that this was not a PDI but a print salon! Yet the name of the salon, the rules in the brochure, the categories on PhotoVault all include the word "PRINT" and details how to submit them!

Prints were couriered to the Circuit Director in Port Elizabeth but delegates also brought them to congress where they arrived on the day of the judging. The prints were sorted in the two categories and then alphabetically on the title. The back of the prints were stamped to verify that they had been entered on the circuit. Whilst the stamp made provision to annotate the result of each salon, it was impractical to do so at congress.

Judging of the prints was done live at the Cape Photographers congress at Calitzdorp. A print light box was provided by the Cape Town Photographic Society on which the prints were displayed to the three judging teams simultaneously. Each salon used their own laptop and TOP scoring system to record their scores.

The EC salon score was announced and the prints stacked per score. This facilitated the job for the judges in selecting the award winners for each salon.

Judging started at 3pm on Sunday 28 April and finished at 10pm.

Acceptance levels for the 3 salons were very close: EC 36 for both categories; GR 34 for both and WC was 36 for Colour and 35 for Mono.

A selection of the accepted prints and award winners were displayed on the PECC exhibition boards in the hall during congress.

On the last day of congress, the prints were sorted per destination and returned either to the delegates or returned to Cape Town or Port Elizabeth for posting to the entrants elsewhere via Postnet.

Results were finally approved by PSSA on 10 May and results emailed to all entrants.
