

HONOURS INFORMATION – 5 PANEL AWARDS - VERSATILITY (Vers & Dux)

In order to achieve a versatility award an applicant needs to be awarded three honours at the same level.

The (Vers) may be awarded for either panel submissions or salon honours but may not include a combination of both.

The intention of the award is to show versatility and therefore the three panels must do just this.

An honour for versatility may be awarded on achievement of any combination of honours, however, to achieve it in a single medium a minimum of two of the panels must be specialised.

The different mediums available are Mono Digital, Colour Digital, Mono Prints, Colour Prints, Audio Visual, Applied and Colour Slides (existing honours only).

An LPSSA(Vers), APSSA(Vers) and FPSSA(Vers) may be awarded.

The awards are automatic, The awards are automatic and will be awarded once they have been checked by the Honours Committee.

FPSSA(Dux) At the Fellowship level acknowledgement in the form of a (Dux) is given for the achievement of three Fellowships in different mediums. The mediums are divided into 4 categories and in order to be awarded a (Dux), a Fellowship must be achieved in at least 2 of the 4 categories, with no more than 1 from the Applied category - the categories are:

- 1) Projected Media (Slides [existing honours only], Colour, Monochrome)
- 2) Prints (Colour, Monochrome)
- 3) Audio Visual
- 4) Applied
